

Environment Manager

- Getting Started with Environment Manager
- Customizing Your Workspace
- Defining Systems and Environments
 - Defining Systems
 - Adding Components to the Palette
 - Managing System Components
 - Exporting/Importing System Definitions
 - Defining Environments
- Defining Component Instances
 - About Component Instances
 - Adding Component Instances
 - Configuring Real Endpoints
 - Configuring Message Proxies
 - Configuring JDBC Controllers
 - Configuring Virtual Assets
 - Managing Component Instances
 - Modifying a Component Instance's Settings
- Provisioning Test Environments
 - About Provisioning
 - Configuring and Provisioning Environments
 - Using Environment Instances
 - Configuring the AUT to Work with Provisioned Assets
 - API for Automated Provisioning
- Monitoring Environment Health
 - Identifying Potential Health Issues
 - Defining Custom Health Checks
 - Reviewing Health Check Test Results
 - Reviewing Out of Sync Virtual Assets
 - Reviewing Uncorrelated Messages
 - Reviewing Modifications Made from Virtualize and SOAtest
 - Reviewing Modifications Made from Environment Manager
- Monitoring Server and Asset Events
 - About Monitoring Server and Asset Events
 - Starting Monitoring for an Asset
 - Stopping Monitoring for an Asset
 - Starting/Stopping All Event Monitoring for a Virtualize Server
 - Viewing Event Messages
 - Working with the Displayed Messages
 - Reviewing Specific Event Logs
- Creating System Sets and Environment Sets
- Assessing Change Impacts
- Defining Provisioning Actions