

Installation Guide

Parasoft Development Testing Platform (DTP) facilitates automated defect prevention practices and enables the uniform measurement of risk across project teams. It provides SDLC process visibility and control across teams, guides developers and testers to remediate the most critical software defects, and establishes a central control point for software defect prevention. DTP integrates with all software development components to collect and correlate data from any SDLC infrastructure system, including open source and third-party testing tools.

- Installation Options
- Requirements
- New DTP Installations
- Upgrading DTP from Standard to Enterprise Edition
- Migrating from 4.x \(Concerto\) to 5.x \(DTP\)
- Upgrading from a Previous Version of DTP \(5.x to 5.y\)
- Starting DTP Services
- Stopping DTP Services
- Opening and Licensing DTP
- Verifying Installed Components
- Appendix