Monitoring and Validating Messages and Events Inside ESBs and Other Systems

Parasoft SOAtest can visualize and trace the intraprocess events that occur as part of the transactions triggered by the tests and then dissect them for validation. This enables test engineers to identify problem causes and validate multi-endpoint, integrated transaction system—actions that are traditionally handled only by specialized development teams.

For details, see Event Monitoring - ESBs, Java Apps, Databases, and other Systems.